

"COLD" MONDAY, PERHAPS THE LAST, OBSERVED TODAY

Washington's third, and probably last, "heaviest Monday" was strictly observed today. Stores, offices, manufacturing plants, and business houses were closed, except where special exemptions had been made.

The day offered in Washington an opportunity to catch up on depleted coal stocks in the schools and in many business houses.

The rules for observance of the day were clearly understood and there was more uniformity than on either of the previous Mondays, when there were many mooted questions.

Clear stores are closed, and most of the newsstands and restaurants are not selling smokers. They could be bought, however, in the Capitol restaurants, even though the downtown lunch rooms were confining themselves to food sales.

Business in the city was practically at a standstill today, with the exception of that of the Government. Office buildings are in many instances without elevator service, and all offices not occupied by the Government, by physicians or dentists, are cold. Groceries and other food stores will close early in the day.

HID BOOZE IN BLANKET.

PORTLAND, Ore., Feb. 4.—Disguised as a laborer and carrying a roll of blankets, Gust Firmike, a Greek, was taken into custody by Deputy United States Marshal Berry. An investigation of the blanket roll disclosed more than 100 pint flasks of whisky, cleverly packed in the bedding. Firmike will be charged with violation of the Reed amendment.

WHEAT HELD UP BY CONGESTION OF RAILROADS

Director General of Railroads McAdoo is expected to issue an order today or tomorrow looking toward giving relief to the grain situation in the West and South, where millions of bushels of wheat and corn are stored awaiting shipment to the East. Lack of terminals, the elevator men have reported to Mr. McAdoo, make it impossible to move the grain.

There is no danger of a wheat or corn shortage, the grain growers and elevator owners state, if facilities for handling the wheat are provided in the East. With the wheat removed, they can easily care for the corn.

Food Administrator Herbert C. Hoover is working in conjunction with Mr. McAdoo in relieving the situation. Mr. Hoover states that if 15,000,000 bushels of wheat can be saved monthly, the allied demands can be met. The grain growers and elevator men are of the opinion that this condition can be met, if transportation to the mills can be provided.

Conditions along the seaboard are improving, and an increased movement of cereals is looked for before the end of the present week.

NOW CAPT. H. O. GARDNER.

Harry O. Gardner, of this city, has just received a commission from the War Department as captain of ordnance. Captain Gardner recently was graduated from the Ft. Myer training camp. Preparatory to entering training, he was auditor for the Crandall Amusement Enterprises. He will begin his new duties tomorrow.

THE CITY'S SOCIAL SIDE

President and Mrs. Wilson to Attend Ball

The President and Mrs. Wilson will occupy a box for the annual ball of the Southern Relief Society, which will be held this evening at the Willard, and which promises to be one of the most brilliant in the history of the organization. Mrs. Wilson's name likewise heads the list of distinguished patronesses.

The guests will be received by Miss Nannie Randolph Heth, president of the society; the Secretary of War and Mrs. Newton D. Baker, the Attorney General and Mrs. Thomas Watt Gregory, the Secretary of the Navy and Mrs. Josephus Daniels, Mrs. Claude A. Swanson, Mrs. William L. Marshall, Miss Mary Custis Lee, Mrs. Matthew T. Roberta Wiley Becomes Bride Of Boston Man

An interesting military wedding took place at noon today in St. Margaret's Church, when Miss Roberta Wiley, younger daughter of Capt. and Mrs. Henry A. Wiley, U. S. N., became the bride of Philip Mory Childs, U. S. N. R., of Boston. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. Herbert Scott, rector of the church, and was followed by a breakfast at the home of Captain and Mrs. Wiley for members of the bridal party and a few intimate friends.

The house was gay with spring flowers and the same gay blossoms were used in the church, with lilies on the altar, and palms, ferns, and Southern smilax as a background. A string orchestra with organ accompaniment, played the wedding music.

The bride was given in marriage by her mother and was escorted by Mrs. Wiley's cousin, James B. Austin, of Philadelphia, in the absence of Captain Wiley, who is on sea duty and was unable to be present. She wore a lovely gown of ivory satin combined with a handsome old point lace. The skirt was slightly draped and the costume was built with a court train hung from the shoulders. Her tulle veil was held with orange-blossoms and she carried a showy bouquet of bride roses and lilies of the valley.

Mrs. Hampton Robb, formerly Miss Elizabeth Wiley, of Boston, manager of Lieutenant Robb's aviation section, signal corps, U. S. A., took place ten days ago, was matron of honor for her sister; and Lieutenant Robb served as best man for Mr. Childs. Mrs. Robb wore a frock of silver cloth shot with turquoise blue, made on simple lines, and a black satin picture hat almost severe in its simplicity.

There were four bridesmaids, Miss Muriel Childs, of Boston, sister of the bride; Miss Elizabeth Austin, of Philadelphia, cousin of the bride; Miss Margaret Mory Childs, of Montreal, and Miss Nanette Kennedy, of Montreal. Their frocks were of pink chiffon and satin and they also wore simple but becoming black satin hats. All the attendants carried armfuls of varicolored spring blossoms.

The ushers were Lieut. Henry Austin, national naval volunteer; Lieut. Lloyd Nichols, U. S. N. R.; Lieut. Lawrence Higgins, U. S. A.; and Capt. Harold Haverick, British army, who is detailed to the U. S. N. R. as an instructor in trench mortar work.

Mrs. Wiley, who, with Mr. Childs' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Childs, of Boston, assisted the bride couple in receiving the guests at the breakfast, wore a handsome gown of purple satin and chiffon, with a becoming black hat. Mr. Childs' aunt, Mrs. Mosen, of Boston, was among the guests at the wedding; also Mr. and Mrs. Philip W. Mosen, the Misses Mosen and Mrs. Roger Kinnicut, of Worcester.

Other guests from out of town were Mrs. James Taylor and Miss Taylor, of New York; Richard Austin, Miss Lucy Austin, and Miss Agnes Austin, of Philadelphia; Mrs. William Worthington, Mr. and Mrs. John Hemmell Johnson, Mrs. Manson Smith, Miss Smith and the Misses Tyler, all of Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. Childs left this afternoon for a short wedding trip, the bride traveling in a smart suit of dark blue cloth, with a black hat and no veil. Their plans for the future are quite indefinite, as Mr. Childs expects to be commissioned in the navy within a few weeks and will then receive his orders.

Lieut. and Mrs. Hampton Robb, who have just returned from their wedding trip, are guests of Mrs. Wiley and will remain with her for the present. Lieutenant Robb is temporarily on duty in Washington.

Last evening Mrs. Wiley entertained at dinner at the Army and Navy Club for her daughter, her fiancé, and the members of their bridal party.

John Barrett, director general of the Pan American Union, has gone to Greenbrier White Sulphur Springs for a few days.

Miss Margaret Ridgely is entertaining at a theater party this afternoon for Miss Agnes Measick, whose engagement to Lieut. Robert Pollock, U. S. A., has just been announced. The other guests are Miss Helen Hopkins, Miss Sara Daniels, Miss Ruth Daniels, Mrs. Thomas Garner, Mrs. J. Ward Mankin, Mrs. J. A. Ridgely, Mrs. G. C. Ridgely, Mrs. A. L. Walters, and Mrs. C. Brown.

VINOL MAKES GOOD BLOOD

Positive—Convincing Proof

Many so-called remedies for anemia are only so in name. Their makers are afraid to prove their claims by telling what their medicines contain.

The only way to be honest with the people is to let them know what they are paying for. Here is the Vinol formula. When the doctor knows what a medicine contains, it ceases to be a "patent" medicine.

It contains Liver and Beef Peptides, Iron and Manganese Peptides, Potassium Citrate, Lime and Soda Glycophosphate, Caeatin.

Any doctor will tell you that the ingredients of Vinol, as named above, will enrich the blood and banish anemia and create strength. When the blood is pure and rich and the body is strong and robust.

You can prove this at our expense because your money will be returned if Vinol does not improve your health.

Obtain Vinol at Drug Store, 904 F Street, N. W., and other Washington Drug Stores that display Vinol. Sign and at the best drug store in every town and city in the country.
